One of America's Biggest Challenges: How to Connect to the Millennial Generation

Millennials pose a huge challenge. Christina Lynch is teaching future priests how to deal with this challenge. Here are just some issues she will address:

- Millennials are over connected spending 7 hours a day in digital media.
- Short in patience and listening skills
- The What's in It for Me? battle-cry
- Education that rarely prepares them with job skills.
- Difficulty in having a face-to-face conversation.
